Not illustrated. 1906 edition. Excerpt: ...four sons and one daughter. The father lived to see three eldest sons converted to Christ and when the daughter and youngest son were old enough they gave their hearts to Jesus. In November 1895, Earl, the second son, was rabbit hunting and laid his gun against a log to stoop down and look for the rabbit, when he raised up he drew the gun towards him to start in a hurry, the gun went off, shooting his left arm so badly injuring it that it had to be amputated six inches below the shoulder. He entered the high school at Dunkirk in 1896 and graduated in 1900. In March 1902, having sold her land in Blackford county, near Dunkirk, Mary Bowen bought a farm in Jay county near where two brothers had previously purchased homes for themselves, and they are all comfortably situated close together on the Salamonia river. Though five miles from Pennville and six miles from Portland, the county seat, there have daily communication with the world by the free rural mail delivery and the telephone system. The children are all married now except Ray, the youngest son who is seventeen years old and living with his mother on the farm. The married children have all settled on farms in Current style around the parental home. CHILDREN of HARVEY and MARY A. BOAEN. Glenn Clifton, born October 21, 1876. Arthur Earl, born March 30, 1880.
