Laura Kelly is a normal high school girl living in the town of Serenity. But when she succumbs to an unidentified sleeping sickness, her world changes while she dreams. When she wakes up, she finds herself with strange power and stranger visions, and she's not the only one in Serenity who has changed. Drago Rossi was a victim of the same sickness, and he has a strange new power as well. But Drago is more worried about his younger brother, Luca, than about himself, especially amidst the chaos that seems to have erupted while he was sleeping. Serenity is in danger from a pack of dangerous creatures called Ferals and a tall, winged man with strange powers of his own. Lilly is a princess and a Sorceress from the Sorcerers Realm, a strange world beyond our own. She senses a pattern in the attacks of the Ferals in the human world, a pattern far beyond the intelligence of the beasts. She recruits her best friend, Neyri, and journeys into the human realm in secret to uncover the truth. But there's much more at stake than a small town and the lives of a few teenagers. The secrets smoldering at the heart of the attack on Serenity will ignite a fire that could consume both realms.
