

Team Development and Leadership

Collaboration and teamwork have become vital during the past decade, and organisations have to cooperate internally and work in teams to compete in the rapidly changing environment. Almost everywhere people gather to get things done effectively. There are cross-functional teams, executive teams and management teams for effective customer service. This book is based on primary research at the Institute of Public Enterprise, which is engaged in research, consultancy and training for corporate executives, trade union leaders and political leaders. The book is intended to be a practical guide to success in collaborative teamwork, based on the rich experiences of thousands of team members and leaders. Team Development and Leadership is an excellent guide for team leaders, whether experienced or new to the job. In addition to learning effective strategies and techniques, team members can use the material in this book to collaborate more effectively.
